Manila, Feb. 6 .- The long expected rupture between the Americans and Filipinos has come at last. The clash came on Saturday evening, when three Filipinos darted past the Nebraska regiment's pickets at Santa Mesa, but retired when challenged. They repeated the experiment without drawing the sentries' fire. But the third time Corporal Greely challenged the Filipinos and then fired, killing one of them and wounding another.

Almost immediately afterward the Filipinos' line, from Caloocan to Santa Mesa, commenced a fusillade, which was ineffectual. The Nebraska, Montana and North Dakota outposts replied vigorously and held their ground until reinforcements arrived.

The Filipinos in the meantime concentrated at three points, Caloocan, Gagalangin and Santa Mesa. At about 1 o'clock the Filipinos opened a hot fire from all three places simultaneously. This was supplemented by the fire of two siege guns at Balik-Balik, and by advancing their skirmishers at Paco and Pnadacan. The Americans responded with a terrific fire, but owing to the darkness they were unable to determine its effect. The Utah light artillery finally succeeded in silencing the native battery. The Third artillery also did good work on the ex-

Washington, Feb. 7.—Hon. Robert P. Porter arrived in Washington Sunday night, having come directly from Ha-vana, after his successful mission to General Gomez, whom he met at Remedios. Aside from he successful outcome of his mission the most interesting part of Mr. Porter's report relates to his observations as to the conditions in the island as they exist today.

Never was there such abject misery seen as then. Toconditions are improved. There are beggars, but of the chronic sort. A decided change for the better is noticeable in the country itself. Washington, Feb. 7 .- The treaty of peace negotiated between the commis sioners of the United States and Spain at Paris was yesterday ratified by the United States senate, the vote being 57 ayes to 27 nays, or one vote more than the, two-thirds majority necessary to secure senatorial concurrence in a treaty document. The vote was taken in executive session, and until the injunction of secrecy was raised the result was supposed to be private, but the vice president had no more than announced the figures before senators rushed out of every door leading from the senate chamber, declaring that the treaty had been ratified.

No vote has been taken in the senate since that on the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law that has been followed with as close attenlety was due not alone to the magnitude of the question at issue, but to the uncertainty which attended the matter up to the last moment. Only the select few knew how Senators McEnery of Lauisiana and Jones of Nevada would vote half an hour before their votes were cast, and not even these knew when the bell rang for the executive

In advance of the voting speeches were made by Senators Ross, Money and Fairbanks. Senator Stewart, who had just arrived from his successful campaign in Nevada for re-election, announced informally during this period of the session that during hisentire trip across the continent he had not encountered one man who was opposed to the ratification of the treaty.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the vice president interrupted Senator Money, who was then speaking, to announce that the hour had arrived for a vote. But one amendment was offered, that prepared by Senator Vest placing the Philippines on the same footing as Cuba in the treaty. In the temporary absence of Mr. Vest it was presented by Mr. Gorman and promptly defeated. The vote was announced and pages were sent scurrying through the corridors to announce to the few senators who were not in their seats that the who were not in their seats that the culminating event had arrived. The call proceeded quietly until the name of Senator McLaurin was announced. He created the first stir by a speech in explanation of his vote for the treaty. This was the initial break in the ranks of the opposition. Mr. McLaurin made a brief statement in explanation of his change of position, giving the open hostilities in Manila as the reason for it. "I am, as I have been from the first," he said, "irrevocably opposed to the expansion of our territory and should have voted against ratification but for the news that has come to us over the cable in the past two days."

The announcement brought some of the opposition to his side with remonstrances, but he replied to them that he could no longer see his way clear to cast his vote against the treaty.

Continuing his remarks to the senate, Mr. McLaurin said he was not willing to embarras this government at so critical a time. If after the ratification the administration should fail to pursue the proper course towards the islands the fault would be that of the government, and not his.

He had hardly concluded when Senator McEnery approached him with a word of congratulation, saying that he had decided upon the same course. Mr. Jones, of Nevada, did not vote in the first roll call, but came in from the cloak room before the vote was announced, and by unanimous consent made a brief and feeling speech. He said that he was against expanison and if he thought the ratification of the treaty meant expansion he would not vote for it. The events in Manila dur-ing the past two or three days, in his discourage expansion than anything that had happened.

After the ratification of the treaty the senate in open session took up a joint resolution offered by Mr. McEnery, of Louisiana, declaring a policy for the Philippines, and an effort was made to adopt it, but the debate oc cupied so much time that the resolution went over.

During the debate Mr. Hoar moved an amendment to the McEnery resolution that whatever government is es-tablished in the Philippines shall be with the consent of the governed. The Agoncillo was shown the press dis patches concerning the ratification of the peace treaty. He read them with interest. The final vote interested him in particular.

I am not yet aware of the circumstances. I really cannot say anything about the matter until I have had an opportunity to fully consider the situation."

The Filipino envoy apparently does not recognize the action of the United States senate as a negative reply to his mission. He has not yet received the news he professed to have come to Canada to get, but hopes to soon. "I heard about Saturday's affair af
